Mr. Taylor.

I. Officer, Terenure, in a 'phone conversation to-day states that she has experienced considerable difficulty in investigating this case. In fact, she states, appt. & her family have refused information & ignored written communications. The I.O. has learned that appt. is the owner of house property, but to what extent, when acquired or even the situation & value will not be disclosed by appt.

The I.O. visited appt on 5 occasions, and sent several written communications, a reply to one of which was enclosed with her report. (the reply was to the effect that appt. had no intention of disclosing information which, in her opinion, it had no bearing on her case). In view of the fact that this reply was enclosed with the report, the I.O. desires to know what additional information the Board require (see ours of 14 10/38).
