A Chara,

I am directed by the Minister for Defence to state it is understood that Miss Alice Mary Cashel formerly of Roundstone, Connemara, Co. Galway, a pensioner under the Military Service Pensions Acts, is at present a patient in the Galway Central Hospital and that owing to her illness she is unable to sign her name. If this be so would you be good enough to indicate whether Miss Cashel is capable of giving a valid discharge of warrants issued to her in payment of her Military Service Pension by her mark thus:

23 Meán Fomhair, 1957.

A Bhean Uasal,

With further reference to your letter of the 28th ultimo concerning the Military Service Pension payable to Miss Alice M. Cashel formerly of Roundstone, Connemara, Co. Galway, and at present a patient in the Galway Central Hospital, I am directed by the Minister for Defence to state that in view of Miss Cashel's illness her mark thus - her

Alice M. X Cashel

duly witnessed, the witness stating his/her full postal address will in future be accepted as a valid discharge of warrants or any documents issued to her provided that a medical certificate testifying as to her inability to write is furnished to this office.

Payment of the pension has been made to Miss Cashel up to and including the 30th September, 1956. The warrant for £3. 0. 11. which issued to her on the 15th January, 1957, in respect of the quarter ended 31st December, 1956, has not yet been presented for payment to this Department. As this warrant contains a Form of Declaration which Miss Cashel is required to complete in the presence of a duly qualified attester, payment of her pension has been withheld as from the 1st January, 1957, pending its presentation through a bank to this Department for clearance.

Should Miss Cashel have not received the warrant in question or alternatively have mislaid it, a duplicate thereof will be issued to her on hearing to that effect.

Your request that future payments of Miss Cashel's pension be lodged to the credit of her account in the National City Bank, 10, College Green, has been noted. However, the question of the future disposal of her pension cannot be considered pending compliance by Miss Cashel with the foregoing conditions.
