re: Patk. Byrne, Orange Lr., Killanne, Enniscorthy.

A Chara,

In reply to yours of the 22nd July last addressed to Messrs. D.
Allen T.D. and T. Brennan, I am enclosing herewith particulars required in furtherance of the claim of above names Patrick Byrne to grade C under the W/S Pensions Act 1934. They comprise the names and addresses of men of the various companies who through neglect in claiming etc.
were omitted from the lists of their various companies when those lists were being compiled for 1st July 1922. The extra men number 50 which brings the total for the 2nd Batt. F.W. Brigade to 319 for the Second Critical date, July 1st 1922 and which entitles him to grade C. for that date.

I send also certificates from the Brigade in respect of the following:

- William Nolan No. 19906.
- Andrew McGann " 23768.
- Daniel Walsh : 33645 and
- Patrick Ryan : 22979.
- David Crean : 23870.

Mise le mas,

Wexford Brigade Old I. R. A.

Record of "G" Coy. Enniscorthy, afterwards "A" Coy. of the SECOND Battalion Wexford Brigade.

This Company was formed early in 1917 at the same time as "A" and "B" companies, Enniscorthy. "A" and "B" were incorporated in the FIRST Battalion and this "G" Coy. was incorporated (being the first Company) in the SECOND Battalion.

This "G" Coy. lapsed about Novr. or Decr. 1920 about the same time as "A" and "B" and was out of existence before the formation of the separate North Wexford Brigade. Outside remnants of the three Companies are now in "G" Company.
