Statement of Mrs. Mollins.

28/5/41

About 3 months after he went to America in 1917, Liam sent me £40 as his first contribution. Afterwards, through secret channels, he sent on an average, never less than £3 per week. In three instalments thro' the Carmelites he sent £175 to defray the cost of his father's illness. After his father's death in 1920 he still contributed. After he came home and up to the time of Four Courts he still contributed roughly as above.

My husband's illness commenced in 1918 and he was bad throughout the whole of 1919. In Dec 1919 he got the bad flu and died in July 1920.

At that time I lived at 21, Mount Shannon Road, Kilmainham.

I later moved to Thomas Street & then to Mount Brown. We lived in rooms in Westland Row for a few weeks subsequent to leaving Thomas St., and before going to Mount Brown.

So that was why & where I resolved
to buy the little shop
to make me both a decent living -
The long hours &
strain - I kept on for almost 2 years
but went under

Commission - You
asked me when I took the shop in Thomas St. that I think requires some explaining on my part - I was confused Liam's death occurred on Dec^{8th} 22 - Barney
