Military Service Pensions Act, 1934.

APPLICATION TO THE MINISTER FOR DEFENCE FOR A SERVICE CERTIFICATE.

This form must be filled in by every person who seeks a Service Certificate, and must be signed by him, and signature witnessed, on or before the 31st day of December, 1935. In the event of an applicant being unable to write he should affix his mark, such act being witnessed.

NAME (to be written in block capitals). MILROY SURNAME. SEAN CHRISTIAN NAMES.

PRESENT ADDRESS (to be written in block capitals). 25, FITZ WILLIAM SQUARE DUBLIN.

NOTE.—Before answering the questions below, the applicant is requested to note that :

(a) This form is divided into three parts. Part I. is to be completed where the applicant had, in addition to the required pre-Truce Service, Service in the Forces in the period commencing the 1st July, 1922. Part II. is to be completed where the applicant's qualifying service in the Forces was pre-Truce only. Only one of those two parts is to be completed by any one applicant. Part III. is of general application and should be completed by all applicants.

(b) Before completing particulars as to rank the applicant should read carefully the First Schedule to the Act and also the definitions of the expressions "first critical date" and "second critical date" which are appended to this form for the information of applicants. He should then complete his replies to the questions in the terms of Rules 1 and 2 of the First Schedule which are applicable to his case, e.g. :—

was "a Divisional Adjutant" or was "a Battalion Quartermaster whose Battalion was (at the critical date) not less than one hundred in strength," or was "an officer of Fianna Eireann commanding one hundred members or more."

If applicant's case falls within either Rule 3 or Rule 4 of the First Schedule full particulars of the claim as required by those Rules should be given, if necessary, in a separate statement.

(c) All statements made in this application will be carefully investigated, and satisfactory evidence must be forthcoming on request to substantiate each and every statement made.

(d) "If any person with a view to obtaining either for himself or any other person a grant or payment of a pension under this Act, makes, signs, or uses any declaration, application or other written statement knowing the same to be false, such person shall be guilty of an offence under this section and shall be liable on summary conviction thereof to a fine not exceeding £25 (twenty-five pounds) or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding six months or at the discretion of the Court to both such fine and imprisonment." (Sec. 19 (1) of the Military Service Pensions Act, 1934).

- (e) "If any person so convicted as aforesaid is in receipt of a pension obtained by reason of such false declaration, application, or other written statement he shall forfeit such pension as from the date of such conviction." (Sec. 19 (2) of the Military Service Pensions Act, 1934).

If the applicant is unable to read, the above note should be read to him by the witness.

SERVICE IN THE FORCES, THAT IS IN THE FOLLOWING MILITARY BODIES, OGLAIGH NA h-EIREANN (IRISH REPUBLICAN ARMY) OR IN THE IRISH VOLUNTEERS OR IN THE IRISH CITIZEN ARMY OR IN FIANNA EIREANN OR IN THE HIBERNIAN RIFLES OR IN CUMANN NA mBAN.

For each of the periods set out in Parts I. and II. in which you claim to have rendered active service, state the name of the unit or units, name and address of the O/C., the names and addresses of three reputable references who can verify your service.

The following circumstances shall not be deemed to constitute a breach in the continuity of service :—

- (a) Absence from duty following arrest, imprisonment, internment, or deportation under the Defence of the Realm Act, 1914, the Restoration of Order in Ireland Act, 1920, or any regulations made thereunder ;
- (b) Absence from duty following arrest, imprisonment, or penal servitude in respect of sedition, treason or treason felony prior to 11th July, 1921 ;
- (c) Absence from duty by reason of duties necessitating such absence undertaken at the instance of or on behalf of the Cabinet of the First Dail Eireann or of the Second Dail Eireann ;
- (d) Absence from duty while under arrest, as a result of activities as a member of the Forces.

If you claim to have been absent from duty under these conditions, give particulars of the circumstances with respect to each such period of absence, and state its duration.

- (a) such officer shall be deemed to have held at that date the actual rank in the Forces which he held at the date of his arrest, and
- (b) such unit shall be deemed to be at that date at the same strength as it was at the time of his arrest.

3. Where the case of any person does not fall within the provisions of Rule I of this Schedule, the Referee may determine the particular grade of rank which such person is to be deemed to have held on any date, and in so determining the Referee shall have regard to the following matters, that is to say :—

- (a) the appointment held by such person,
- (b) the services performed by such person,
- (c) the principles of grading set forth in the said Rule I.

4. Where any person, whose case at a particular date falls within the provisions of Rule I of this Schedule, was, at that date, engaged in service of a special character, the Referee may, in making his report under this Act in relation to the grade of rank held by such person on such date, report that the grade of rank held by him on such date is a grade of rank higher than the grade which, but for this Rule, would be the grade of rank held by him on that date.

DEFINITION OF THE FIRST AND SECOND CRITICAL DATES.

1. In the case of a person who served in the Forces during the period commencing on the 1st day of July, 1922, and ending on the 30th day of September, 1923,

The expression "the first critical date" means the 11th day of July, 1921; and the expression "the second critical date" means:—

- (a) in the case of a person who served in the Forces on the 1st day of July, 1922, the 1st day of July, 1922 and
- (b) in the case of a person who did not serve in the Forces on the 1st day of July, 1922, but who served in the Forces at any time during the period commencing on the 2nd day of July, 1922, and ending on the 30th day of September, 1923, the date during that period on which such person first served in the Forces.

2. In the case of a person who did not serve in the Forces during the period commencing on the 1st day of July, 1922, and ending on the 30th day of September, 1923, but who has either:—

- (a) served in the Forces at any time during the week commencing on the 23rd day of April, 1916, or
- (b) served in the Forces continuously during the period commencing on the 1st day of April, 1921, and ending on the 11th day of July, 1921, the expression "the first critical date" shall be construed as meaning the date during the said week, or if he did not serve during the said week, during the said period, on which he first served in the Forces in such week or such period (as the case may be), and the expression "the second critical date" shall be construed as meaning the earliest date in the period between the first critical date in respect of such person, and the 12th day of July, 1921, on which such person held his highest rank in such last-mentioned period in the Forces.

STATEMENT WITH REFERENCE TO PENSIONS CLAIM
UNDER MILITARY SERVICE PENSIONS ACT, 1934.

The claim for pension, for which I have filled in the required details on this Form, refers to the period of Easter Week, 1916. I suggest, however, that I have also some claim in respect to the years following up to the end of December 1921. As, however, I find some difficulty in setting out exactly the requirements of such claim I therefore submit an outline of my activities subsequent to 1916 so that you may judge whether or not I am entitled to claim pension for period other than Easter Week, 1916.

I joined the Volunteers at the commencement of the movement at the first meeting in the Rotunda Rink in 1913 and though I was not mobilised after 1916 I still regarded myself as a Volunteer as I was available for any volunteer duty if called upon. I assumed that the reason that my services were not so requisitioned in that capacity was that I was fully occupied as Director of Organisation for Sinn Fein. After the setting up of the first Dail the Sinn Fein Organisation functioned as the civil arm of Dail Eireann, and I take it that my work as Director of Organisation of Sinn Fein could be accurately described as work done under the direction of the First Dail.

I am assuming, in this connection, that my case in regard to such period, other than Easter Week, 1916, would be covered by the paragraphs I have marked in RED on Page 2 of this form.

I may also mention that under the Defence of the Realm Act 1914 I was arrested and imprisoned with Sean McDermott and Liam Mellows.

OUTLINE OF ACTIVITIES SUBSEQUENT TO EASTER WEEK, 1916.

1917. Arrested and Courtmartialled by the British.
Appointed Director of Organisation, Sinn Fein. Director of Elections in bye-election East Clare.
Arrested and interned in 'German-Plot round up'.
1918. General election in which Sinn Fein won fought on scheme of organisation prepared by me before arrest in 1917. Escaped from Lincoln Jail with Eamon De Valera and Sean McGarry. Subsequent to escape from Lincoln Jail resumed work as Director of Organisation.
Arrested and sentenced to imprisonment in Galway Jail for activities in Galway.
Arrested for speaking at meeting in connection with Dail Eireann Loan at Ross-na-Kill, Co. Donegal. Sentenced to imprisonment in Derry Jail. Neil Blaney T.D. was chairman of meeting. Dr. McGinley of Letterkenny was also there and was also arrested and sentenced.
After release from Derry continued to act as Director of Organisation for Sinn Fein and was sent to Great Britain to organise the Irish in England, Scotland and Wales in support of Dail Eireann and the movement for independence.
1920. Arrested at Holyhead after visit to Dublin, where I had been to report progress of movement in Great Britain, and held by British Military until interned in Ballykinlar. Detained in Ballykinlar until the truce when I was released with other T.Ds. to attend Dail Eireann.
1921. Appointed by Dail Cabinet to act as Secretary on Ulster to advise Plenipotentiaries in peace negotiations re Ulster. In this capacity was summoned to London by Arthur Griffith and remained there preparing memos, maps and general data re Ulster until termination of negotiations.

SWORN STATEMENT MADE BEFORE THE ADVISORY COMMITTEE BY SEAN MILROY - File No. 20970 - 22nd SEPTEMBER, 1936.

- Q. Did you bring references with you?
A. No.
- Q. You will want to send them on?
A. Yes.
- Q. You are claiming for Easter Week?
A. Yes.
- Q. Were you mobilised on Easter Sunday?
A. I was mobilised on Easter Sunday at Fairview and then told to go home and await instructions. I was not mobilised on Monday and after some difficulties I got in touch with some people in Sheriff Street.
- Q. Where did you go on Monday?
A. Sheriff Street.
- Q. What happened then?
A. I remained there on Monday night and on Tuesday morning I was told to report to the G.P.O.
- Q. You reported to the G.P.O. on Tuesday morning?
A. Yes.
- Q. Were you in the G.P.O. up to the surrender?
A. No. Immediately I went to the G.P.O. I met Connolly and Pearse and Pearse sent me with Captain Tom Byrne to occupy a place in Parliament Street. I remained there until one of our men was wounded and I was sent back to the G.P.O. to report. I remained in the G.P.O. until Connolly sent me to occupy a post in Abbey Street with a body of men.
- Q. When was that?
A. On Wednesday. There was a machine gun operating in Abbey Street, in the Capel Street end of it. Connolly was wounded just after that. He said there were also men in the Independent Office and I was to take charge of both. We remained there until we were told to evacuate the post.
- Q. How long did you remain there?
A. A night and a day and then I went back to the G.P.O. and remained there until Sean McDermott asked me on the Friday to leave and try to find some way of retreat. I left and made my way to Abbey Street, the place was being swept by machine gun fire. There was no way out there. I tried to report back to him and found I could not get back.
- Q. You were not able to get back to the G.P.O. on Friday?
A. No. I remained in a house in Abbey Street until the surrender on Saturday. I was picked up by a British patrol on the Saturday.
- Q. You were captured on Saturday?
A. Yes.
- Q. You were interned?
A. Yes.

Q. When were you released?
A. Christmas Eve.

2nd Period.

Q. In the three weeks before Easter what were you doing?
A. I had no special activities just whatever volunteer activities were on in connection with the Company.

Q. Did you re-join your Company when you were released?
A. No, I waited for instructions and I was never communicated with. There is a statement attached to my file giving details of my activities subsequent to Easter Week. I believe there is a provision which permits of absence from activities - I did special duty in Dail Eireann. I was Director of Organisation for Sinn Fein.

Q. Immediately after your release at Christmas 1916, did you report back to your Unit?
A. No, I simply awaited ~~order~~ instructions. I did not know ~~where my unit had been scattered or who survived.~~ where my unit had been scattered or who survived.

Q. You did not re-join?
A. No.

Q. From 1916 up to the setting up of Dail Eireann your services would not count?
A. You are better able to judge that than I am.

Q. There is a question of your rank - were you Captain of a Company?
A. No, I was a private in my Company. I claimed the rank of officer on the suggestion of Michael Staines and Geroid O'Sullivan who told me that a man in charge of a body of men in Easter Week, such as I was, would be entitled to officer's rank. That is the ground under which I make my claim.

Q. How many men had you under your control?
A. From one dozen to 20. I am not sure how many men were on the Independent side of the street at the time but there were 15 on the Abbey Street side with me.

Q. Who was your Company Captain before Easter Week?
A. I forget who was Captain but the 2nd Lieutenant was Kavanagh.

Q. Were you attached to the 2nd Battalion?
A. I was originally attached to the Company that drilled in Camden Lane. I found that inconvenient and I found out that some of the 2nd Battalion drilled in Fairview.

Q. You do not know what Company you belonged to?
A. No, there was only one Company drilled in Fairview. I think it was the 2nd Battalion.

Q. When you were arrested at Holyhead what were you charged with?
A. I was not charged at all. I was taken into custody and locked in the cabin until I arrived at ~~Holyhead~~ Dun Laoghaire and I was taken to Arbour Hill.

Q.

3.

Q. There was no charge against you?
A. No.

Q. Before your arrest in 1920 had you any connection with Army work?

A. The only thing is that from time to time I brought over arms

Q. Who were you doing that work for?

A. It was nothing official, only if I got guns I brought them over. In the course of my work organising in Great Britain I was backwards and forwards frequently and if there was any opportunity of bring arms I brought them. There was no large operation at all.

SWORN EVIDENCE given before THE ADVISORY COMMITTEE on 29.10.1936, by FRANK HENDERSON, on behalf of:-

SEAN MILROY. File No.20970.

Q. -

A. I know he was out in Easter Week. I saw him in the Post Office. I cannot tell you a lot about him.

Q. He was mobilised on Sunday in Fairview, was in Sherriff Street on Monday, and the G.P.O. on Tuesday; he was in Parliament Street, the G.P.O., Abbey Street, and was captured on Saturday.

A. That is probably right. He was one of those sortees that Connolly made. He was out in Easter Week all right.

Q. All the rest is political work?

A. I would imagine so. I do not know anything about it.

Q. He has full Easter Week. There is no evidence he rejoined.

A. I think he was in the Hibernian Rifles.

Q. He was a bit vague about these details.

A. His Easter Week is all right; he was sent to Reading Gaol.

Q. It would be all political work after?

A. I would imagine that.

Q. He was asked if he rejoined, and he said no.
We can finish him.

A. The only question was whether he was ordered on to the political work.

Q. He says he did not rejoin.

A. -

Q. The Hibernian rifles were vague.

A. They were a small body. Some of them were good enough.

Q. Were they a friendly society?

A. They were the two A.O.H. - they were the American alliance. They started a volunteer movement within themselves. There was a couple of dozen good fellows.
