Report as to dependency of Applicant or of the motherless children upon Deceased at the time of his death.

With reference to the attached, I beg to state that the deceased was a member of the I.R.A. since 1916 and was killed at the Crossbarry ambush in 1921.

The applicant is about 64 yrs of age and has a farm of about forty acres of land. He is apparently well-to-do and has a married son residing on the farm and has also one daughter married to a farmer.

He has also one daughter at home. I believe that the applicant was to some extent dependent upon the deceased for the working of the farm as he had to employ a man to assist him.

The applicant has not worked for some time as he is very feeble.
