Report as to dependency of Applicant or of the motherless children upon Deceased at the time of his death.

Civic Guard Report states that the Applicant is a small farmer and is very poor. He has not enjoyed any private income prior to the death of the Deceased, neither did he hold any regular employment. The Applicant is father to the Deceased and under 60 years of age; but is not incapacitated by ill-health.

Prior to his death, the deceased did not hold any regular employment; but assisted his father on his holding and fishing when such was to be done.

In my opinion the Applicant was partially dependent on the deceased.

Further Report:-

The Applicant has a holding of 10 acres with a small dwelling house thereon. The Poor Law Valuation is £1.8.0. His wife is alive. There are five other children, 4 girls and one boy. The 4 girls are still attending school and the boy has no occupation other than assisting his father on the holding.

The Deceased had no occupation other than assisting his father on the holding.
