Report as to dependency of Applicant or of the motherless children upon
Deceased at the time of his death.

Claim was considered on 10/7/24 when it was decided that claimant was not dependent on the deceased at the time of death - see extract from Civic Guard report on attached A.P.21.

Representations have since been made by Mr. Sean Collins and 8 children, 5 of whom are in America and do not contribute to his support. A daughter is employed as a typist in Cork and her earnings barely keep herself. A son is employed as clerk to the District Court and his earnings do not more than keep himself. The other son is just left school. Mr. Murphy, T.D., who resides in Dunmanway states that claimant told him that for several weeks he has not earned more than 6/- at his trade.

Report as to dependency of Applicant or of the motherless children upon
Deceased at the time of his death.

The Civic Guard Report states that the claimant is a cooper by trade and his earnings are about £5 per week. He is father of the deceased and has one of his legs somewhat deformed; but this does not seem to interfere with the pursuit of his usual work. Claimant owns his own house and has no land or holding. The Poor Law Valuation of same is 30/- per annum.

Claimant has eight other children - five of whom are in various parts of America. He has three children at home whose ages are 25, 22 and 19 years respectively. One of the sons is D/Court Clerk at Dunmanway and one is apprenticed to his father, and the daughter is employed as shorthand typist in Dunmanway. None of the children contribute anything to the support of the applicant except the son employed as D/Court Clerk.

Prior to his death deceased was working for his father and was in receipt of £3 per week and his board.

Claimant seems to have been in some measure dependent upon deceased at the time of his death; but he seems to be in comfortable circumstances at present.
