Dear Sir,

In reply to your query of the 16th inst. herein I regret that the Grant of Probate to the Will of the above deceased has not yet issued nor has it been applied for since the deceased did not have any other assets.

Would it be possible to have whatever Death Benefits payable to his Estate by your Department, paid out without the necessity for the extraction of such a Grant on the production of an Indemnity to be prepared by you but signed by the Executor, Beneficiary and myself as the Solicitor involved ?.

A Chara,

With reference to your letter of 14 Aibreán, 1966, regarding your pension under the Military Service Pensions Act, 1934, I am directed by An tAire Cosanta to state that the determination of active service and grade of rank for pension purposes were exclusively matters for the Referee on whose report the service certificate issued to you was based. The maximum award having regard to that report was granted to you and you have been granted the maximum increases permissible.

There are no provisions in the Military Service Pensions Acts for the re-consideration of cases in which awards have been made and it is regretted, therefore, that your claim cannot be reviewed.

Enclosed is a copy of the conditions governing the grant of special allowances. If you consider that you are eligible for a special allowance, you should make application to this Department.
