Your Ref No. RO/251.

A Chara,

In reply to yours of the 20th. Inst.

I enclose lists as requested.

XX The Civil War did not effect the Ballinrobe Batt. area
untill the end of July 1921. The O/C Thos Lally joined the Free State Forces about the middle of August. The Vice O.C and Adj.
went neutral about the same time and their ~~positions~~ were not filled untill about the end of the Civil War.

A Chara,

In reply to yours of the 17th instant. Ballinrobe Coy. in 1920 was about 150 strong - the officer personnel then were :-

Captain	John Biggins	Main St. Ballinrobe.
Adj.	Thomas Flynn	Bowgate St. do
Q.M.	Thomas Walsh	Cloongowla (deceased).
1st Lt.	Patk. F. May	Main St. Ballinrobe.
2nd Lt.	Ml. Malley	Lavalla (now U.S.A.)

The Capt. and Adj. were interned 11th July 1921.

About the time of their arrest the Coy. was divided into two, the right half holding the name Ballinrobe Coy. the left half been called Cloonacastle Coy.

The officer personnel of Ballinrobe Coy. then were:-

Captain	Patk. F. May	Main St. Ballinrobe
Adj.	John Jennings	Rahard do. (now U.S.A.)
Q.M.	Thomas Mellett	Kilkerrin do. do.
1st Lt.	Thomas Burke	Cahir, do. (deceased).
2nd Lt.	John Sullivan	Rahard do. (now U.S.A.)

When the Brigade Column was formed the Captain - Patk. F. May - became a member of it and appointed Thomas Fahey, 8, Upper Drumcondra Rd. Dublin, in charge of the Coy. He later joined the Column and Lieut. Burke took charge of the Coy.

The officer personnel on July 1st 1922 were -

Captain	Thomas Burke	Cahir, Ballinrobe. (Deceased)
Q.M.	Ml. Jennings	Ballinya, do. (Now U.S.A.)
1st Lt.	Ml. Burke	Kilkerrin do. (deceased)
