Sir,
I wish to appeal
against your decision in granting me only  $4\frac{2}{3}$
years under the Military Service Pension Act 1934

I can produce Capt.
Coghlan Lieutenant Kermy
and the Intelligence
O.C. of the Battalion to prove that I endangered my home and my life on different occasions.

I certainly believe it is a miracle that I am here at all to apply for a pension
and you tell me I did nothing.

My object in so doing is to continue in business in the cattle trade in which I have had many years experience I wish to add that because of the adverse conditions in the cattle business for some years past I am unable to carry on without the Capital which the commutation of my pension would furnish

I trust that the Minister for Defence will favourably consider without undue delay this application which I humbly place before him

A Chara,

With reference to your recent letter regarding the award of pension granted to you under the Military Service Pensions Act, 1934, I am directed by the Minister for Defence to state that the maximum award, having regard to the Referee's report on your claim, was granted to you. Furthermore, the award was increased by 50% with effect from the 1st January, 1953, and that was the maximum increase permissible under the terms of the Military Service Pensions (Amendment) Act, 1953.

There are no provisions in the Military Service Pensions Acts whereby a further increase could be granted to you, or whereby your award could be reviewed, and, in the circumstances, it is regretted that there is no action which can be taken in the matter.

A form of application for a special allowance under the Army Pensions Acts is enclosed. On the return of the completed form your case will be dealt with as expeditiously as possible.

Mise, le meas,
