In reply to yours of , I was ill during the month of July, and did not remember about the payment of the June moiety. I usually allow the three months payments to accumulate {if possible} and then lodge them in the Bank. I never change the pension warrants in any other way. I have now lodged in the National Bank, College Green, - where the Management vouches for my signature - the warrants for June, ~~July, Aug and~~ and Sept. I trust this will clear up the position and that there will be no obstacle to payment of the ^{July, Aug and} Sept. moiety - which you tell me was issued inadvertently.
