A Chara,

With reference to your letter of the 31st ultimo regarding the award of pension granted to you under the Military Service Pensions Act, 1934, I am directed by the Minister for Defence to state that the maximum award, having regard to the findings of the Referee, has been granted to you.

I am to add that there is no provision in the Military Service Pensions Acts under which increased awards could be made to pensioners.

Accordingly, it is regretted that no further action is possible in the matter.

A CHARA,

With reference to your letter of the 3rd instanc I am directed by the Minister for Defence to state that the balance of pension due under the

Military Service Pensions Act 1934 to the Estate of the late Edward Burke, 13 Park Terrace, Off Meath Street, Dublin

will be paid to the legal personal representative of the deceased upon production at this office of Probate of Will or Letters of Administration.

If, however, the deceased died intestate and the value of his/~~her~~ Estate does not exceed £100 the enclosed Form of Statutory Declaration should be properly executed and returned to this office together with (1) the receipted bills for the funeral expenses, and (2) a Registrar's Certificate of Death.

In this connection it is desired to point out, that as the Funeral Expenses are a first charge on the Estate of a deceased person receipted bills showing that these expenses have been discharged must be produced before payment of the balance due under the above Acts can be made.

In the event, however, of the Next-of-kin being unable to defray the Funeral Expenses, this Department, if it is so desired, is prepared, upon production of the relevant Bills, to pay to the Undertaker, within the limit of the balance of pension due to the date of death, the amount of his account. allowance

Should the balance due to the date of death exceed the amount of the Funeral Expenses, any sum remaining to credit after these expenses have been paid as indicated, will be remitted to the next-of-kin.

A Bhean Uasal,

With reference to your recent letter relative to the pension awarded to your late husband Mr. Edward Burke, under the Military Service Pensions Act, 1934, I am directed by the Minister for Defence to state that the pension was personal to deceased and ceased on his death.

I am to add that there is no provision in the Military Service Pensions Acts whereby an award of pension or allowance could be granted to the widow or dependant of a deceased pensioner.

In the circumstances, it is regretted that no further action is possible in the matter. The enclosure<sup>s</sup> which accompanied your letter ~~are~~<sup>is</sup> returned herewith.

With reference to your application in respect of the death of your husband, I am directed by An tAire Cosanta to state that, as your husband was not in receipt of a wound or disability pension under the Army Pensions Acts, it is regretted that there is no provision in these Acts whereby any award could be made to you. 59/- per wk = £153 : 16s : 5 1/2 p.a.

Taking 20% Reduction,

Nett Pension = £29 : 16s : 4d.

∴ Public Monies + Pension = £183 : 12s : 9d.

Taking 10% Reduction, Nett Pension = £33 : 10s : 10 1/2d.

Public m. + Pension would be £183 : 10s : 10 1/2d.

∴ correct Reduction = 20%.
