I would be very greatful to you if you would be able to send me the address of James Loughlin He is missing from home since the 11th of April. and I have not since heard of him. I am his son and I have reported the matter to the gards, and all has failed so far.

He is an old I. R. A man and he always gets the be thankful if you would be able to send me his

Dear Sirs

I am very thankful to you for letting me know the position you were in with regard to my father. I just got a letter from him the day before telling me to send on his pension forms. I sent him the March form and I told him to write to you and explain his position. For his behalf am very sorry to have caused you such trouble. He told me in his letter that he went away for a quiet rest for himself as he was feeling out of place for some time back and he just thought that the forms were coming as usual. I ask you be fair with him. He don't very well understand himself. His present address is, Ballyfore brogan
