A Chara,

With reference to your letter of 28th December last in connection with the application of John Kiernan and 21 Others under the Military Service Pensions Act, 1934, I am directed by the Minister for Defence to state that before he can decide on what action he can take in connection with the acceptance of appeals in 20 of these cases, it will be necessary for each Applicant concerned to furnish the following information :-

1. A summary of the additional evidence he proposes to submit.
2. The nature of the additional documents (if any) and the name and address of every additional witness who is prepared to give evidence on his behalf.
3. When such additional evidence became available.
4. Why such additional evidence was not available at the original hearing of his application.
