22 Samhain, 1954.

A Bhean Uasal,

With reference to your letter of the 24th ultimo and enclosures, I am directed by the Minister for Defence to enclose a Payable Order in your favour for £1. 12. 1d. (One pound, twelve shillings and one penny). This sum represents the balance of Military Service Pension and special allowance due to the estate of your husband, the late Michael J. Phelan to the date of his death, i.e. the 8th October, 1954.

The receipted bill and death certificate forwarded by you have been duly noted and are returned herewith.

I am to state that there are no provisions in the Military Service or Army Pensions Acts nor has the Minister any funds at his disposal whereby he could refund the amount paid by you in respect of the funeral expenses of the deceased.

I am to add that as your husband died subsequent to 1st October, 1927, and was not, at the date of his death, in receipt of a wound or disability pension (as distinct from a special allowance) under the Army Pensions Acts it is regretted that there are no provisions in those Acts under which a claim by you in respect of his death could be considered.

Mise, le meas,

RÚNAÍ.

Mrs. Agnes Phelan,
91, Ballyfermot Avenue,
Ballyfermot,
