GRACE VANDALEUR PLUNKETT

Advisory Cttee :

Applicant not heard.

Case not discussed with V.Os.

She is the <sup>widow</sup> ~~widow~~ of Joseph Plunkett, executed in 1916, and is in receipt of a pension of £180, on that account.

In Appeal Form she states she was a member of the Provisional Government during the first year of its existence. Her principal activities, according to application form, appear to have been confined to the production of cartoons for which she received no payment. She was disinherited in 1916 in her father's will and was ejected from her home in 1916. In her appeal she claims she took charge of all the lists of subscribers to the Republican Loan Fund; harboured a few Volunteers for a period in addition to her cartoon work.

In view of the special features of her case it might receive further consideration. Hold accordingly.

States she is in ill-health owing to hardships undergone from 1916 to 1923.

SUMMARY OF SWORN EVIDENCE GIVEN BEFORE THE INTERVIEWING OFFICER
BY THE APPLICANT, Mrs. GRACE VANDALEUR PLUNKETT (F.N.53667) ON
THE 19th JANUARY, 1942,
AND AGREED TO BY HER.

Mrs. Plunkett was never a member of Cumann na mBan or of the Citizen Army, but she was active in connection with the Irish National Movement throughout the period covered by the Act. Prior to the Truce her principal services consisted in attendance at meetings throughout the country delivering speeches, producing political cartoons and collecting funds for various Republican causes.

Mrs. Plunkett draws attention to the hardship which was involved by her producing political cartoons. This work took her away from her ordinary work and as it was unpaid she had to suffer consequent loss.

On the outbreak of the Civil War she attended at Tara Hall and spent a week there attending to the wounded, etc.

In February, 1923, she was arrested and imprisoned in Kilmainham and the North Dublin Union.

She was released on the 30th August, 1923.

After her release she appears to have taken part in speaking campaigns in Dublin, Sligo, Mayo and Kildare, and she continued to produce cartoons.

Mrs. Plunkett states that her principal reason in applying for a pension under this Act was the difficulty she finds in supporting herself and nine dependants (unrelated.)

Q. Is there anything else you want to add to that? A. No.

I will put that statement before the Referee and his Committee and you will hear from them in due course what his decision is.

Advisory Committee/

This lady does not appear to have any service which could be regarded as qualifying service under this Act. She had no Cumann na mBan activities prior to the Truce. She stated that the mere sight of a gun would cause her to faint. She did nothing of the ordinary work which is usually associated with Cumann na mBan.

She realises that she has no claim and states that the only reason she put in a claim under the Act was that she had been induced by a Mrs. McNamara (?) to do so. The compelling reason, however, was the inadequacy of her pension as the widow of a Signatory to the Proclamation. This has now been rectified, and the pension was brought up from £180. to close on £500. She knows that as a recipient of such a large pension she would not be entitled to a second pension out of public funds.
