A Chara,

With reference to your recent letter in regard to a proposed claim under the Army Pensions Acts in respect of the death of your husband, the late Mr. John Faulkner, I am directed by the Minister for Defence to inform you that as your husband died subsequent to the 1st October, 1927, and as he was not in receipt of a disability pension at the date of his death, there are no provisions in the Army Pensions Act, 1953, whereby your claim could be considered.

It is regretted, therefore, that no action is possible in the matter.

WHEN INQUIRING ABOUT A PATIENT :

1. Give plainly the FULL name of the Patient, and state what relation you are to the Patient. Reports are sent to relatives only, and to others at the written request of a relative.
2. Address all inquiries to THE MEDICAL SUPERINTENDENT, GRANGEGORMAN MENTAL HOSPITAL, DUBLIN. Do not address your letter to any doctor by name. Neglect of this rule leads to delay and inconvenience.
3. Enclose a stamped and plainly addressed envelope for a reply.
4. See that your address is registered in the Office, and when you change notify the new address immediately. This is of the utmost importance, as it is only in this way relatives can be promptly acquainted if the Patient becomes ill.
5. Communicate to the Medical Superintendent any FACTS you know as to insanity in the Patient's family, the Patient's previous habits and health, and any known or suspected cause of the Patient's illness. Accurate information on these points will assist in the treatment of the Patient.
