A Bhean Uasail,

With reference to previous correspondence, I am directed by An tAire Cosanta to enclose a Payable Order in your favour for four pounds, six shillings and seven pence, being the balance of pension and allowance due to the estate of the late Richard Hickey to the date of his death.

I am to state that special allowances and Military Service Pensions are personal to the recipients and cease on their deaths. There are no provisions in the Army Pensions Acts or the Military Service Pensions Acts whereby an allowance or a pension could be granted to your sister by virtue of the fact that your brother was in receipt of a special allowance and Military Service Pension. I am to add that An tAire has no funds at his disposal out of which funeral expenses could be paid to you. In the circumstances, it is regretted that no assistance can be rendered in the matter.
