A Chara,

With reference to your letter of the 21st instant, regarding your military service pension, I am directed by the Minister for Defence to state that as a condition of payment, evidence that the pensioner is alive must be forthcoming at quarterly intervals. This is obtained by requiring the pensioner to complete in the presence of a qualified attester, the form of Life Certificate embodied in the quarterly warrant.

In view of the foregoing, it is regretted that it is not possible to accede to your request to have your pension lodged during your absence from Ireland, to the credit of your account in the Munster and Leinster Bank, Ltd., Drumcondra, Dublin.

If you so desire, however, and if you furnish an address to which they may be sent, your pension warrants will be issued to you as usual while you are away, but they would not be eligible for encashment outside the Sterling Area.
