H. F. O. (Mr. Kilcullen).

This case was not referred to the S.W.O in 1954 or last year. The current report shows a change in that, instead of living alone, as formerly, there is now living in his house with the applicant his son and daughter-in-law and their two young children and another son of applicant's - James.

In view of applicant's age - 75 last December - it is not proposed to assess anything in respect of facilities afforded ~~to~~ by him to his son and his family but, in the case of the son James, it is considered that we should assess at least free lodging. This it is proposed to do; the amount in this case being £5. 4. 0 (which is the equivalent of a contribution of 20% to 25%).

Do you agree please?
