A Chara,

With reference to your letter of the 30th April, 1963, regarding the pension awarded to Mr. Domhnall Ó Buachalla under the Military Service Pensions Act, 1934, I am directed by An tAire Cosanta to state that the determination of active service and the duration of such service for pension purposes were exclusively matters for the Referee on whose report the service certificate issued to Mr. Ó Buachalla was based.

There are no provisions in the Military Service Pensions Acts for the re-consideration of cases in which awards have been made, and it is regretted, therefore, that the claim cannot be reviewed.

The Sec. Military Pensions Bd.

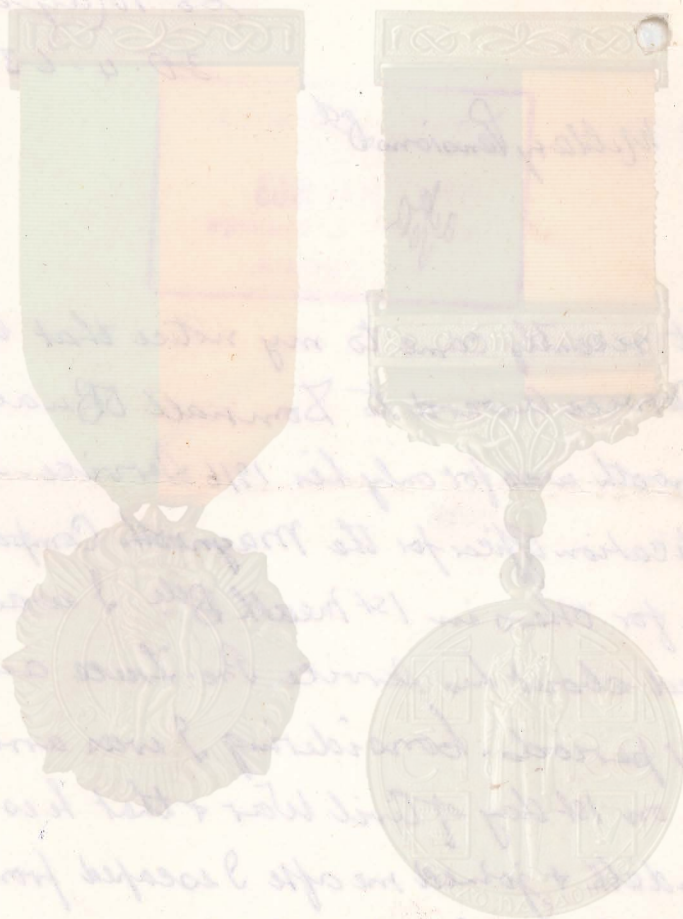

S. Cara,

It recently came to my notice that the military Service Award to Donnall O'Buacalla of Maynooth was for only his 1916 Service. As O/c and Verification Officer for the Maynooth Company as well as for others in 1st Meath Bde I was never questioned about his Service Pre-Treaty and Civil War periods. Considering I was arrested with him on 1st day of Civil War & that he escaped from Dundalk & joined me after I escaped from The Curragh why was I not asked to verify & why was he not given credit for these periods. Unfair and wrong and unjust.

Mr L. O'Gorman, Dept. of Finance, States there is no reference in the Act of 1937, dealing with the pension of Domhnall Ua Buachalla, which would take that pension out of the category of public monies for purposes of the M.S.P. Acts.

In the circumstances the military Service pension must be abated by the pension of £500 as ex-Seneschal.
