Dear Sir,

We shall be obliged if you will let us have precise particulars of the military service pension to which the above deceased was entitled. Please also let us know if there is any balance due to the deceased and if there is any additional payment or gratuity due to the estate of the deceased.

It is not intended to extract Letters of Administration Intestate to the deceased's estate.

In the circumstances we shall be obliged if you will let us know what are the Department's requirements to enable us to obtain payment of such sums as may be due.

We wrote to the Pay Master General's Office and have been informed that a compassion gratuity of £132. 1. 4. has been awarded in this case.

An early reply will be appreciated.

Yours faithfully,

CARTAN O'MEARA & KIERAN

A Cháirde,

I am directed by An tAire Cosanta to refer to your letter (RSK/VM) of the 2nd instant and to inform you that the balance of pension due under the Military Service Pensions Act, 1934, to the estate of the late Henry E. Manning amounts to £1.4.8d. The enclosed form of Statutory Declaration should be properly completed and returned to this office, together with (1) receipted bills for the funeral expenses (which must indicate the name of the person by whom such expenses were paid) and (2) a Registrar's Certificate of Death, in order that An tAire may determine whether he would be justified in dispensing with the production of Letters of Administration, before making payment of the balance due.

I am to state that no other payment is due to the estate of the deceased from this Department.

I am to confirm that a gratuity of £132.1.4d. was awarded to the late Henry E. Manning by An tAire Airgeadais. You should apply to the Chief Clerk, Paymaster General's Office, 3, Lower Ormond Quay, Dublin, for payment of the gratuity.

Dear Sir,

Referring to previous correspondence. We enclose herewith form of application for payment of funds due to the estate of the above deceased duly completed by the Reverend James R. Manning. We also enclose receipt for the funeral expenses and copy of the death certificate of the said deceased.

We trust that you will accept a copy of the death Certificate as the expense of recovering this small sum will very nearly exhaust the amount payable.

We await hearing from you.

Yours faithfully,
