Memo

Mr Sean Fitzpatrick, Secretary, National Graves Assn, phoned. He said that the question of erecting a plaque at Kilmainham Jail to commemorate those who had been executed there in the cause of Irish freedom had been under consideration. In this connection he wishes to establish the location of five executions which took place on 8th January 1923 -

Leo Dowling,

S. Heaney,

Larry O'Keilly

Lawrence Brady.

Lawrence Sheehy

whom he stated had taken the Republican side after some time in the Free State forces.

Having inspected our records I informed Mr. Fitzpatrick that the executions were recorded as having taken place at Pontabell's Belts.
