Sir,

I appeal

I served in the military service Act 1934. I served in every form for them. I washed and supplied and sent out stuff to them.

I had three brothers in jail. I bandaged and I looked after the sick so I hope ye will look upon me with compassion. I worked hard in my days gone by

Yours truly
James Walsh

In the circumstances, the Minister regrets that he is unable to grant you a certificate of military service which would render you eligible for the award of a pension.
