Per interview of Mrs Joy Aughagower her son John is ploughing the land at present. She is unable to state the amount of rent paid but she understands that it is only a "small amount" in the region of "a few hundred pounds per annum". Ben John was not available for interview as he is employed as roadworks by Mayo Co.
Mrs Joy also informed me that her son John pays the rent for use of land to Mrs Mary Mitchell a cousin of Mrs Malone and who also resides in Glenpark Nursing Home Castlebar. In fact Mrs Joy thinks that it is Mrs Mitchell who is now full owner of the land but as Miss Malone thinks that she herself is owner Mrs Joy requests that we do not raise the question of ownership with Miss Malone as it could have a very "upsetting effect" on her.
Perhaps in the circumstances a provisional report should be sent to Dept of Defence - I am set off per interview of Mrs Joy that Miss Malone PTO

is not presently deriving any income from the land in question — and in the meantime S.W.O Castlebar C can visit the Solicitor Office Castlebar to determine ownership.

Offr. SE change,

as above please. I have forwarded Army Pension papers to provisional award.

Supr. Castlebar,
Per check with Land Registry Office, Castlebar, Mrs Bridget Malore is not the owner of any land or property Mrs Malore has no means.

Re: Ron Cosanta,

To see Report. It is Most likely that there are no changes in Pensioners means. We have not the facts fully established as yet. Perhaps you could make a Provisional award Assessing Benefit of Holding at £20 p.w. as before & return papers to this District so that a final report can be made.

To The Minister of Defence

Dear Sir

Once again I am writing you about my pension been withheld since May of last year, I wrote you months ago. I received a reply stating an investigation was been carried out, now I am getting that pension for years, during the war of Independence 19.21. and 22. My boys on the run stayed in my Father's house night after night during that time I was a young girl many times they asked me to go two or three miles with a letter to their pals. I had to go

Like it or not, ^{at} risk of my life Despatch this letter was called in them days. I have no income other than the old age pension, needless to say, that money was of great help to me. I miss it since it has been with held., I am 87 years, again

Mr. Minister I also ask you to look into the matter for me.

Thanking you.

Yours.

Re: Bridget Malone

S.W.O. could not complete report on 2/5/89. Question of land ownership arose. Mrs Malone believes she has $\frac{1}{2}$ share in land with her sister. Due to her age S.W.O. did not wish to raise the issue with Mrs Malone. The payment of rent of land goes to Mrs Mitchell (sister of applicant). S.W.O. checked with folio office ~~Castlebar~~ and Mrs Malone is not named as owner of land. Perhaps as Mrs Malone is not a registered owner and receives no income from land assessment for business ~~leading~~ 1.2.20 should not apply from ~~1/1/89~~ 1/4/89.

down last year Edward Moran told me to get it opened up again so I wrote away and got forms. to fill we thought when the Government got back to office again we would be all right, During the trouble times I went out and worked hard to save many a man's life and when I wasn't shot myself I was lucky I had to go out myself and watch in the cold and rain at night while the slept in my house I had to look after them here sick they would be shot dead here in the house but for I was out on the hills I am sure you remember the night Westport was blown up

I was out all night watching for them I had to walk five miles to town and carry home a load of stuff to them I often fed 15 cats at a time I never got a thing out of it only a medal so I got cold it turned into Boobles on my skin I might say I am an invalid I was given up for death two years ago I got forms to fill for the special allowance and I got Doctors certificates and I was turned down and a few days ago I got a letter saying they couldn't grant me a certificate to get it I am a poor girl and I havent a thing in the world to depend on so it is very hard on once to line all the letters I got are all there at them. It is really is troubling up a ~~chance~~ the are collecting of the S R of windows it is breaking my heart that I have nothing to give there are people getting - that ~~man~~ did anything like I did. My mother is a cousin of to Charles Hughes ^{was} R C P. So you are the only man I would ask at the head of the Government I always voted for your government so may God Bless and Reward you if you could do anything for me as I am a pity I am sending you two little pictures I got from Xmas so will you kindly let me know your sincerely
