A Chara

With reference to your application for a special allowance under the Army Pensions Acts, I am directed by the Minister for Defence to state that a statutory condition for the award of the allowance in the case of an applicant who is less than 70 years of age is that he/she be found incapable of self-support owing to permanent infirmity. As you have stated in reply to the appropriate question on the special allowance application form that you are not incapable of self-support due to permanent infirmity, it is regretted that you are not eligible for the award of a special allowance under the terms of the Acts.

Mr Deakin

This case was sent to SWO, but I overlooked the fact that there was no need to do so in view of applicants having replied "No" to Q2 on AP 46/1 - "Do you claim to be incapable of self-support due to permanent infirmity?"
