A Bhean Uasal,

I am directed by the Minister for Defence to refer to the specimen signature furnished by you in the name of Eiblin Ní Bailis in connection with the pension awarded to you under the Army Pensions Act, 1932. In this connection I have to inform you that, as your application for pension on form A.P.50 was in the name of Nellie Wallace, and your certificates of service and medical reports have been furnished in that name, effect cannot be given to the payment of pension in the gaelic equivalent of your name. Should you, however, elect to have payment made to you in the name of Eiblin Ní Bailis, arrangements will be made to have the original application amended and signed by you in that name, and to have the certificates, etc. relative to your case altered accordingly. If, in the circumstances, you agree to accept the pension awarded in the name of Nellie Wallace, I am to enclose herewith a fresh form for completion.
