the Forces.

2.—(1) A person shall for the purposes of this Act be deemed to have been serving in the Forces while such person was rendering active service in any of the bodies which constitute the Forces and, in the case of a person who served as a member of the Irish Volunteer Executive or of the Headquarters Staff of Oglaiġh na hEireann (Irish Republican Army) or in the Intelligence Branch of any of the bodies which constitute the Forces, while such person was so serving.

Persons to whom this Act applies.

(b) who served in the Forces at any time during the period commencing on the 1st day of July, 1922, and ending on the 30th day of September, 1923, and

(c) who is not a person to whom the Act of 1924 applies.

(2) Where a person who is not a person to whom the Act of 1924 applies and who is not a person to whom, by virtue of the preceding sub-section of this section, this Act applies, has either—

this Act shall, notwithstanding anything contained in the foregoing sub-section of this section, apply to such person, but with and subject to the modification that, in respect of such person, the expression 'the first critical date' shall be construed as meaning the date during the said week or, if he did not serve during the said week, during the said period, on which he first served in the Forces in such week or such period (as the case may be) and the expression 'the second critical date' shall be construed as meaning the earliest date in the period between the first critical date in respect of such person and the 12th day of July, 1921, on which such person held his highest rank in such last-mentioned period in the Forces.

(3) The Act of 1924 shall for the purposes of this section, be deemed not to apply to a person to whom the Act in fact applies but in respect of whom the Minister is satisfied either that because of such person having served in the Forces he did not apply for a certificate of military service under the said Act or that such person was refused such certificate because of his having been sentenced to imprisonment or penal servitude in respect of an act done by him in the execution of his duty as a member of the Forces.

Re Military Pensions

The Secretary
Ministry of Defence
Dublin.

A Cara

Mr M. Moles who is an applicant for a pension
for Military and other services rendered between 1914 and the present times, has asked me to testify to his activities and I gladly do so.

1. In 1914 she and her late husband
Mr J. F. Moles, Solicitor, Castletar joined the Sinn Féin movement & immediately became the leading spirits in this area

2. Mrs Moles was one of the founders and probably the most active worker in the Cumans na mban organization and acted as instructress in first aid and Red Cross work.

3. On the establishment of the Sim Fein Courts Mrs Moles accompanied her husband to the various courts & carried all documents etc.

4. In the 1918 Elections Mrs Moles did wonderful work in canvassing, organizing etc.

5. During the Black & Tan regime in this area her services were unceasing.

6. She joined the Anti-Treaty Party & worked for them even more enthusiastically than before.

7. In every political activity up to the present day Mrs Moles has always been in the forefront.

I have no interest in

Military Archives<sup>3.</sup>

Mr. Males except to admire her tireless energy in, and devotion to, all political movements
since 1914 — activities which I might add in conclusion, I generally thoroughly disagreed with.
