Dear Mr. Macleaney,

Re James Malone C.454/34.

Died 25.2.75. Made no will,
Administration not to be taken out.

Married Freda Courtney 4.12.1935

Solicitor - ex Deputy M. O'Moran ex Minister for Justice, called on widow some days after funeral and collected death and marriage certs from widow together with warrants for M.S.P. and D.F.P. presumably for Febr. which had been issued posthumously.
He inform widow that he would look after everything. He still holds these documents and is at present on the continent.

Mrs. Malone has no source of income and since her husband's death has received no payment of any kind except help from relatives who reside in Galway. She resides alone in Castlebar.

She suggests that a R/Cosanca write to solicitor requesting surrender of death and marriage certs and return of the warrants issued to her late husband.

This, it appears has already been done but the request has been ignored.

A form A.P. 406/1/W has also been sent to solicitor but has not been returned.

The above I think sets out the position. I shall be thankful if you can help in bringing the matter to a conclusion. It is realized that the Dept. is not at fault. It is entirely the fault of the Solicitor.

Regards.

With reference to your letter of 3rd March 1975 relative to the late Captain James Malone, I am directed by the Minister for Defence to state that assuming the date of death to be 25th February 1975 the balance of retired pay and military service pension due to the estate of the deceased amounts to £204.13. Consideration will be given to the payment of this balance subject to any deductions which may be necessary in respect of income tax, to the legal personal representative of the deceased on production at this office of Letters of Administration.

A Funeral grant of £50 is also payable. The uncashed military service pension warrant for the quarter ended 31st March 1975 should be returned to this office for cancellation.

A form to enable Mrs Freda Malone to apply for a widow's allowance is enclosed. On receipt of the completed form which should be accompanied by a marriage certificate, and a death certificate, the question of awarding Mrs Malone a widow's allowance and widow's pension will receive immediate attention.
