I am directed by the Minister for Defence to state that on the 4th instant, Ex-Commandant Cronin was convicted by the Constitution (Special Powers) Tribunal of an offence mentioned in the Appendix to the Constitution (Amendment No.17) Act, 1931. Mr. Cronin was in receipt of a pension of £82.10.0. under the Military Service Pensions Act, 1924, which was forfeited as from the date of conviction, in accordance with the terms of Section 31 (2) of the Constitution (Amendment No.17) Act, 1931. There now remains in Mr. Cronin's Military Service Pension Account a balance of £8.9.7., representing pension unpaid up to and including the 3rd instant., the date prior to the date of conviction, and the question arises as to whether this sum is payable, having regard to the very definite expression used in Section 31 (2) of the Act, viz. "and such pension shall forthwith cease to be payable".

Ex-Commandant Cronin was an Officer of the Reserve of Officers up to the 12th ultimo, when his Commission was withdrawn by the Executive Council, and, in this instance also, there is a balance of £11.15.0. in his Account, representing Reserve Pay unpaid up to the date of the withdrawal of his Commission, and here also the question arises as to whether this sum is payable, having regard to the terms of Section 31 (1) of the Act.

I am directed by the Minister for Defence to state, accordingly, that he would be glad if you would be good enough to arrange to have the Attorney General's opinion obtained on the legal questions involved.

I am directed by the Minister for Defence to acknowledge the receipt of your minute of the 24th instant, (Reference - V. McD/M.G.), relative to the application of Ex-Commandant Kilcoyne for the Attorney General's Fiat to enable him to institute District Court proceedings for the recovery of arrears of military service pension.

In reply, I am to state that Mr. Kilcoyne was convicted on the 13th instant by the Constitution (Special Powers) Tribunal, of an offence mentioned in the Appendix to the Constitution (Amendment No.17) Act, 1931. Mr. Kilcoyne was in receipt of a Military Service Pension of £60.11.5., which was forfeited as from the date of conviction in accordance with the terms of Section 31 (2) of the Act.

There is a sum of £9.2.4. in Mr. Kilcoyne's Pension Account, representing pension unpaid up to the date prior to the date of conviction. This sum has not been paid because doubt exists as to whether it can be paid, having regard to the terms of the Section and Sub-Section quoted, and, in this connection, details of a similar case, viz. that of Ex-Commandant Cronin, were submitted to you on the 25th instant, with a view to your obtaining the opinion of the Attorney General on the legal point involved. Should the Attorney General express the opinion that there is nothing in the Section of the Act to debar the payment of the arrears of pension, the Minister is prepared to make payment in both cases.

The documents forwarded with your minute are returned herewith.

With reference to your minute of the 25th instant, regarding sums due to ex-Commandant Cronin in respect of balance of Military Service Pension and balance of Reserve Pay. The Attorney General advises as follows:-

"In my opinion ex-Commandant Cronin is entitled to be paid both the sum of £8.9.7. and the sum of £11.15.0. balance of Military Service Pension and balance of Reserve Pay respectively. If he takes action to recover these sums there is, in my opinion, no doubt that he will obtain a Decree".

Will you please let me know at once if the Minister proposes to pay these sums in accordance with the Attorney General's opinion, as Mr. Cronin's Solicitor has lodged a draft Civil Bill in respect of his Military Service Pension for the Attorney General's Fiat. The amount claimed in Civil Bill, however, is the sum of £12.10.0. being the Pension alleged to be due to ex-Commandant Cronin up to 4th instant.

I received a reply from your Sec. drawing my attention to certain sub-sections of the act. I quite agree with his reply, but at the same time I know that the final decision rests with the Minister, & considering the fact that the Minister was generous enough to restore my pension I still trust to his generosity to give me the back time.

A Chara,

With reference to your letter of the 20th ultimo, relative to the payment of the pension of Mr. John F. Kilcoyne, Drummindoo, Westport, I am directed by the Minister for Defence to inform you that in view of his conviction on the 13th October, 1933, by the Constitution (Special Powers) Tribunal, of an offence mentioned in the Appendix to the Constitution (Amendment No.17) Act, 1931, his Military Service Pension of £60. 11. 5. was forfeited as from the date of conviction in accordance with the terms of Section 31(2) of the Act.

The Executive Council on the 2nd October, 1934, made an Order pursuant to Section 12(1) of Article 2A of the former Constitution freely pardoning Mr. Kilcoyne of the offence of which he was convicted by the Constitution (Special Powers) Tribunal on the 13th October, 1933.

Accordingly, payment of pension was resumed as from the 2nd October, 1934, the date of the said Order.

In view of the terms of paragraph 31(4) of the Constitution (Amendment No.17) Act, 1931, which reads as follows:-

"Whenever a conviction which occasions by virtue of this Section any forfeiture or disqualification is quashed or annulled or the convicted person is granted a free pardon such forfeiture or disqualification shall be annulled, in the case of a quashing or annulment, as from the date of the conviction and, in the case of a free pardon, as from the date of such pardon".

The Minister regrets that he has no power to enable the payment of Military Service Pension to Mr. Kilcoyne to be resumed at a date earlier than the 2nd October, 1934, the date of the said Free Pardon.

With reference to the representations of the Minister for Lands on behalf of Mr. John F. Kilcoyne, Drummindo, Westport, Co. Mayo, I am desired by the Minister for Defence to say that following a conviction by the Constitution (Special Powers) Tribunal, on the 13th October, 1933, Mr. Kilcoyne's pension of £60. 11. 5. per annum, awarded to him under the Military Service Pensions Act, 1924, was, in accordance with the terms of Section 31 (2) of the Constitution (Amendment No. 17) Act, 1931, forfeited as from the date of conviction.

Following an Order of the Executive Council made on the 2nd October, 1934, freely pardoning Mr. Kilcoyne of the offence of which he was convicted, payment of his pension was resumed as from the 2nd October, 1934, in accordance with the provisions of Section 31 (4) of the Constitution (Amendment No. 17) Act, 1931, which reads as follows:-

"Whenever a conviction which occasions by virtue of the Section any forfeiture or disqualification is quashed or annulled or the convicted person is granted a free pardon such forfeiture or disqualification shall be annulled, in the case of a quashing or annulment, as from the date of the conviction, and in the case of a free pardon as from the date of such pardon".

In these circumstances, the Minister regrets that he has no power which would enable him to restore Mr. Kilcoyne's pension, prior to the date of the free pardon.

To the Sec. Dept of Defence
Dear Sir,

I beg to apply
under the new Army Pension act (1949) for a refund of one years pension forfeited
by the last government. (£60-16-5)

The following are the facts of the case

In Sept. 1933 I was arrested, more for wearing a "Blue Shirt" than carrying a revolver without licence. I was sentenced to three months imprisonment from date of arrest, by the military Tribunal. This I served partly in Mountjoy & partly in Arbour Hill. My ref. no is C.102.

Dear Dr. O'Heggin's

An army pensioner (Old I.R.A.)
named John Keeloyne of Drummindee Westport, lost a year's pension (60...11.5 in 1933 through being associated for carrying a revolver without a licence, while wearing a Blue Sheet of which organisation he was a prominent member.

I wonder under the recent Army Pensions act is there any provision made for a refund of the amount forfeited? This reference number is C 102. He informs me that he has written the Sec. Dept of Defence on the matter. I would be grateful for anything that can be done for him.

Sincerely Yours

With reference to the representations of the Minister for Lands on behalf of Mr. John F. Kilcoyne of Drummindoo, Westport, County Mayo, at present residing at The Hostel, Ridge View Road, London Colony, Herts. England, regarding his military service pension, the Minister for Defence desires me to say that warrants in payment of Mr. Kilcoyne's pension are issued monthly to him. The warrant in respect of the last month of each quarter contains a statutory declaration which the pensioner is required to complete in the presence of a qualified attester as evidence that he is alive. The warrant in payment of his pension for March, 1956, which contained such a declaration, was issued to Mr. Kilcoyne at his Irish address on 29th March, 1956, together with the specimen signature form received with the representations under reference. The warrant was presented and paid at this Department on the 7th ultimo. Specimen signatures, which also require to be duly attested, are requested from time to time by this Department for record purposes.

I am to add that warrants in payment of Mr. Kilcoyne's pension will continue to be issued to his Irish address as requested.

To the Minister of Defence

Dear Sir

I wish to inform you that ~~a~~ my pension voucher issued for ^{October} my allowance (£7) & posted at Westport, Co. Mayo to me by my wife to the above address has not so far reached, although posted on Oct. 31st, so presumably it is lost, & I therefore apply for a refund. I have reported the matter to The Minister for Posts & Telegraphs. Furthermore I will receive no other monthly allowance till the October voucher goes back to the head office. My code no is C.103. This allowance was a great asset to my wife in helping to maintain our 6 children. Trusting you will do your utmost to rectify the matter.

Dear Sir

I wish to state that so far
I have not received my monthly Old I. R. A. pension allowance ^{Feb.} & for I would be grateful for same.

I wish to state that something similar happened in 1956. That year I was working in England & my lives used forward me the monthly voucher for my signature. One voucher which she forwarded did not reach me. I reported the matter to the then Minister for Posts & Telegraphs who forwarded me a duplicate of the voucher on the understanding that should the Original turn up I would return it unfortunately it never did turn up.

An extensive inquiry started between
 The responsible ~~Minister~~ Minister in England
 & The Irish Dept. It finished up with no blame attached to the English Officials & The only Conclusion that we arrived it was that The voucher was maliciously destroyed in Ireland.

That Conclusion in my opinion was right as There was also some difficulty here over a telegram I sent to my Wives with a fairly large sum of money & did not arrive here for ^{about} 5 or 9 days after been despatched Again after inquiries both here & in England The Conclusion reached was that The mistake was made in Ireland.

I would be grateful for a duplicate of my voucher on the understanding that if the Original turns up, I will return it to you by regd. post

Re: Mrs Bridget Kilcoyne, Drumindoo, Westport, Co Mayo.

The above who is a holder of a widow's allowance has not returned a duly completed pensions declaration form, issued to her in September 1978, as evidence of her being alive.

Perhaps you would be so good as to please make enquiries to ascertain if Mrs Kilcoyne is still living. If she is not alive, any information you could give regarding the whereabouts of her next-of-kin would be appreciated.

Re: Mrs Bridget Kiboyne, of: Drumadoo, Westport, Co Mayo

The above-named who is in receipt of a ~~pension~~/allowance has failed to return a completed Pensions Declaration form as required by the Appropriation Act 1962. ~~His~~/her warrants have, therefore, been withheld and ~~he~~/she has been informed accordingly.

Please arrange enquiries as to why the Pensions Declaration has not been completed and if the person concerned is deceased perhaps you would furnish any information regarding date of death and name and address of next-of-kin.
