A Chara,

*of 17th Sept which was

Sept on the 19th*

With reference to your letter of the 19th September, regarding your application under the Military Service Pensions Acts, I am directed by the Minister for Defence to inform you that the statutory time limit for the acceptance of petitions for the re-investigation, under the terms of the Military Service Pensions (Amendment) Act, 1949, of rejected applications under the Military Service Pensions Acts, 1924 and 1934, expired on the 18th September, 1953.

As the Minister has no discretionary power to accept a petition after the expiration of the statutory time limit it is regretted that no action can now be taken in the matter and no useful purpose would be served by issuing a form of petition to you.

Mise, le meas,

A CHARA,

I am directed by the Minister for Defence to refer to your application for a service certificate under the terms of the Military Service Pensions Act, 1934, and to inform you that the Referee, to whom your application was referred, in accordance with the terms of Section 8 (1) of the Act, has reported that you are not a person to whom the Act applies. In the circumstances, the Minister regrets that he is unable to grant you a certificate of military service which would render you eligible for the award of a pension.
