To Whom it may concern.

Mr. Patrick Boyle was in my employment from early 1916 to 1920. During that time he was in perfect health & also a very capable member of my staff.

Mr. Boyle returned to me in 1924 to take up his old job. Since that time he has been most attentive to his work & has at all times given the height of satisfaction. I am of opinion, however, that he suffers from a disability as he occasionally loses time & complains of head-ache which to my mind is due to his sight.

For the four years 1916-1920 Boyle never lost one hour.

Opinion of the Medical Board.

NOTES:—

1. Clear and definite answers are to be filled in by the Board, as in the event of a man suffering from a disability it is essential that the Army Pensions Board should be in possession of full and accurate information to enable them to report upon the man's claim to pension.

Expressions such as "may," "might," "probably," etc., are to be avoided.

2. A report is to be made on any disability claimed. If it is found not to exist, this should be made clear. If it exists but it is not considered to be attributable to any form of military service, it should be reported on as fully as if it were attributable to service. The words "no disability" should never be used as equivalent to "no disability attributable to Service."

4. State precisely the nature of the wound or injury, or disease.

Defective eyesight.

5. (1) Give the diagnosis and particulars of any disability claimed or discovered (1), (2), (3), etc.

(2)

(3)

6. The present condition thereof, giving—

(i.) Symptoms and physical signs.

(ii.) Effect of disability on function.

Applicant states that his sight became bad while on active service in 1921.

See specialist's report.

7. Disability or disabilities in respect of which the claim for compensation should be considered (1), (2), (3), as per para. 5. (If no disability exists, enter Nil).

8. State whether each disability (as per para. 5) is attributable to

Wound,
Injury, or Disease, attributable to

Disease not attributable to

9. If the claim is in respect of a wound or injury attributable to service in the Forces, is the present condition solely due to that wound or injury?

10. Does the man claim in respect of any other disability from which he suffered during service with the Forces or in respect of a disability (naming it) medically identifiable with it?

11. If the man makes a claim as per paragraph 9, or 10:

(a) Had the man recovered from the disability before his discharge?

(b) If not, is it established that the present disability is continuous with that claimed for per paragraph 9 or 10, and that it is not a fresh attack unconnected with his service?

(i.) Is there direct evidence consisting entirely of medical reports and certificates covering the period since his discharge?

(ii.) Is there a continuous history of overt symptoms of ill-health since discharge, established by evidence partly or wholly of a non-medical character?

Military Service

(c) The disability from which the person is now suffering is attributable to his service with the Forces;

- (c) Where a part of the period since discharge is not covered by evidence, is it considered that the disability must have persisted throughout, and, if so, for what reasons?

Military Archives

12. If the man claims in respect of a disability attributable to service, but that such disability arose subsequent to discharge, what evidence is there in support of the claim that the disability claimed for is attributable to service?

- (a) Has this been established by a continuous history of overt symptoms of ill-health since discharge, consisting of evidence partly or wholly of a non-medical character?

- (b) Where a part of the period since discharge is not covered by evidence, is it considered that the disability must have persisted throughout, and, if so, for what reasons?

Military Service Pensions Collection

13. If evidence is furnished of a continuous medical history state whether—

- (a) The disability from which the person is now suffering is attributable to his service with the Forces;

(b) State briefly the reasons for the opinion given in answer to (a), and if the answer is in the affirmative, the nature of the conditions (as stated by claimant) which caused the disability.

14. If no evidence of a continuous medical history is furnished, but the disability is one which for certain reasons the Board hold to be attributable to the conditions of the person's service in the Forces, state fully the medical grounds for the opinion and the evidence on which it is based (where the Board consider that the medical evidence for and against the claimant is not sufficiently definite, or otherwise feel doubt as to the expression of a confident opinion one way or the other on the question of entitlement, they may leave the question unanswered and instead set out in their report the pros and cons of the medical evidence).

Military Service

A Chara,

With reference to your further representations on behalf of Mr. Patrick Boyle, 126 Pearse Street, Dublin 2, who is in receipt of a special allowance under the Army Pensions Acts, An tAire Cosanta desires me to say that a special allowance is an annual sum of such amount as when added to the applicant's yearly means will not equal or exceed a prescribed sum. The prescribed sum in Mr. Boyle's case is £130 i.e. the sum applicable to an unmarried person under 70 years of age.

Mr. Boyle's allowance was calculated as follows:-

Period	(a)		(b)
	From:	27.9.1962	7.1.1963
	To:	6.1.1963	31.10.1963
		£ s. d.	£ s. d.
Prescribed Sum		130 0 0	130 0 0
Yearly Means:
Partial free maintenance from Mr. James Lawless		32 10 0	32 10 0
Disability Benefit (half the yearly amount is assessed)
(a) 32/6 per week (b) 37/6 p.w.		42 7 4	48 17 8
Total:		£74 17 4	£81 7 8
Special allowance, rate per annum:		£55 0 0	£48 10 0

Having regard to the prescribed sum and to the applicant's means, the allowance granted is at the maximum rate permissible under the terms of the Acts.

As the rate of Mr. Boyle's disability benefit will be increased by 5/- per week as from 7th January 1963, it is necessary to assess as means one half of the increased rate from that date.

The Award Certificate dated 30 Deire Fómhair 1962, which was received with your representations is returned herewith.

With reference to your letter of the 7th ult. relative to the late Patrick Boyle I am directed by An tAire Cosanta to state that, assuming the date of death to be 3rd March 1964 the balance of pension & special allowance which is due under the Military Service & Army Pensions Acts to the estate of the deceased amounts to £ 4.6.11. This balance will be paid, subject to any deductions which may be necessary in respect of income tax, etc. to the legal personal representative of the deceased on production at this office of Probate of Will or Letters of Administration.

A Chara,

Re: Patrick Boyle, deceased.

With reference to previous correspondence regarding the above-named who was in receipt of a special allowance under the Army Pensions Acts, I am directed by An tAire Cosanta to state that the late Mr. Boyle was overpaid special allowance to the amount of £108.3.4d. during the period 27th September 1962 to 29th February 1964.

This overpayment arose because he failed to disclose his full capital at the investigation of his means by the Social Welfare Officer on 12th September 1962 and 11th September 1963.

I am to request you therefore to refund this amount to the Department as soon as possible.

Re: Patrick Boyle, deceased.

With reference to your letter of the 19th instant enclosing cheque for £18 in partial refund of overpayment of special allowance under the Army Pensions Acts made to the above-named deceased. I am directed by An tAire Cosanta to state that in view of the composition of the assests of the deceased it is considered that there should be no difficulty in refunding the overpayment in one payment.

The balance of Mr. Boyle's Military Service Pension due to his estate and amounting to £3.14.3. has been withheld against the gross overpayment of £108.3.4. special allowance. The nett amount outstanding is therefore £86.9.1. and I am to request you to refund this amount to this Department without delay.

The £18 forwarded by you is accepted without prejudice to An tAires right to recover the balance in full.

A mortgage debt created by the Deceased himself on his real property, but which is payable by his heir or devisee under the Real Charges Act 1854 ("Locke King's Act") is a debt in respect of which there is a right to reimbursement, and it must not be deducted as against the personal estate.

8. (18) The Schedule "B" hereto annexed contains a true and particular list of the debts (9) due and owing from the Deceased at the time of his death to persons resident out of the State, other than debts contracted to be paid in the State, or charged on property situate within the State which have been deducted in the said Schedule "A," with the names and addresses of the several persons to whom the same are respectively due, and the descriptions and the amounts of such debts. The Schedule "B" contains also a true statement of the amount of any duty payable in any foreign country other than Northern Ireland, Great Britain or any British Possession to which Section 20 of the Finance Act, 1894, has been applied, by reason of the Deceased's death in respect of property situate in that country, and included in the said Account "B."

They were incurred by the Deceased bona fide for full consideration in money or money's worth wholly for the Deceased's own use and benefit. They are not, nor are any of them, debts which are primarily payable out of any real estate (10), or debts in respect whereof there is a right to reimbursement from any other property or person (11).

In so far as they were incurred by the Deceased, or were created by a disposition made by him, they were incurred or created bona fide for full consideration in money or money's worth wholly for the Deceased's own use and benefit, and they take effect out of his interest in the real estate.
