Dear Sir,

Above is in receipt of military service pension of £66. He also received full O.A.P. since 14th Oct-1961.

He has now reached age of seventy years. He has been informed that on reaching 70, and having no other means, he is entitled to a supplementary pension.

Do such a supplementary pension available to this man? If so, what is procedure to apply for same.

I would be grateful if you would let him know, and send on to him, whatever form of application is necessary.

Yours sincerely
Henry Kenny
