Dear Sir.

As you are the minister responsible for the just & sympathetic administration of the Military Service Pension Act 1934 I feel that it is to you I should appeal in the matter of my long overdue pension appeal. I received my Service Certificate ~~in August 1935~~ but as the certificate did not give me credit for the rank I held on July 11th 1921, I appealed against the award. It is now 1 year & 9 months since I sent in my appeal but although Deputies, Kilday & Moane, two of my comrades in the tan & civil wars have assured me on several occasions that my appeal has been successful, I have not so far received official notification. I think the is unfair as I am a poor man & could do with the money. I have been several months in hospital with the result that I owe people money which my pension award would help to pay. I would be very thankful if you would look into my case & have it dealt with as soon as possible it would be a great relief to me

Thanking you in Anticipation

A Chara,

I am directed by the Minister for Defence to refer to your telephone conversation of to-day in connection with the application of Thomas Ainsworth, Castlebar Street, Westport, Co. Mayo, under the Military Service Pensions Act, 1934, and to state that Mr. Ainsworth appealed against the terms of the Service Certificate granted to him by the Minister and refused to accept the award sanctioned in his case.

It is now understood from you that Mr. Ainsworth is willing to accept payment of the original pension as sanctioned by the Minister without prejudicing his appeal for a higher pension. I am accordingly to state that payment of pension will be made on receipt of a communication from the applicant stating his willingness to accept payment on the basis of the original award pending a final decision on his appeal.
