The Board of Assessors,

Dublin.

I wish to draw your attention to the claim of two ex-National Army officers from this locality. To my own knowledge they were active members of the I.R.A. since 1917, and they were fine brave young fellows when there were very few of their sort in East Mayo. They are now out of employment, have no homes of their own but are living with relations. They certainly deserve consideration from the Government, and I respectfully recommend them to you.

Their names are Captain Thos. Lynch (of Ballyvarry, Co. Mayo) and Lieut. John Corley, Keelogue, Ballyvarney.
