A Chara,

With reference to your minute, No. RA/992/24, of the 2nd instant, forwarding a letter from Mrs. Alice Byrne of 7, Manor Cottage, Mountmellick, Leix, relative to her claim for compensation in respect of the death of her son, Captain Terence Byrne, who was murdered at Nenagh on the 30th June 1922, I am directed to inform you that no application has been made in this case to the Compensation (Personal Injuries) Committee.

From the information supplied by Mrs. Alice Byrne I am of opinion that the case is one which should be submitted to the Army Pensions Board, 34, Molesworth Street, Dublin, and I am forwarding your minute and Mrs. Byrne's letter to the Secretary of that Department.

Mise, le meas,
