Report as to dependency of Applicant or of the motherless children upon
Deceased at the time of his death.

The Secretary of the St. Vincent de Paul Society reports that the applicant was partially dependent on the deceased. She had no private income prior to death of deceased; neither had she any regular employment of any kind. She has no income at present.

The following are the surviving children of the applicant:-
Bernard 20 years - labourer. Nellie 19 years, worker in Callagher's Tobacco Factory. James 17 years - never at any work. John 14 years - just left school - not working. Bernard earns 20/- weekly and Nellie earns 15/- weekly. They contribute to the upkeep of the claimant.

The deceased was a labourer prior to joining the National Army - his wages were about 25/- weekly - for a considerable period, deceased earned over £3 weekly with Messrs. Henry, Contractors, out of which he gave about 50/- weekly to applicant.

The applicant is not in possession of a holding.

GENERAL.

Bernard was unemployed during the troubles in Belfast for nearly three years and resumed work only since January, 1924.

Nellie was idle for a considerable period during the troubles. James left school at the beginning of the troubles and has not been able to obtain employment.

Particulars of Claim made in respect of educational expenditure within the past 12 months.

Daniel (the deceased) was six weeks in hospital as a result of being shot during the Belfast troubles.

Though claim for compensation was made against the Northern Government no compensation was allowed. Applicant's house was raided on innumerable occasions by the Special Constabulary.

Particulars of any Payment received in compensation from person responsible for the act which caused death of Deceased. (Section 13 (a) of The Army Pensions Act, 1923).
