3. Was death due solely to such disability or disabilities, and was such attributable to service? If death was due to more than one disability, it should be so specified.

Yes.

4. If so due, specify as regards the following Forces:—

- (a) the Irish Volunteers, or
- (b) the Irish Citizen Army, 1916, or
- (c) the National Army.

(a) Yes.

in each case under 2, the date or period when, in the opinion of the Board, the disability which was the cause of death was incurred.

1st May 1921.

5. Were any of the disabilities under 2 due to any serious negligence or misconduct on the part of the deceased person?

No.

6. In case there are more disabilities than one, as set out in question 2, was death solely to wound or to disease, having regard to the provisions of Section 14 (9) and 15 (6) of the Army Pensions Act, 1927.

N.A.

7. Were there any special circumstances connected with this case which the Board consider should be taken into consideration by the Minister?

Yes.

The Board, having considered this case on appeal, are of opinion that the applicant was partially dependent on the deceased at the time of his death, and having regard to the special circumstances in the case recommend that an additional gratuity of £50 (fifty pounds) be awarded.
