ARMY PENSIONS BOARD,
ST. BRICIN'S HOSPITAL,
DUBLIN.

29th AUGUST 1933.

The Officer,
Customs and Excise,
Clonakilty,
Co. Cork.

With reference to your report (attached) in the case of Mrs. Mary O'Neill, Shansway, Ballineen, Co. Cork, an applicant under the Army Pensions Act 1932, in respect of her deceased brother, the late Richard Barrett, I am directed by the Army Pensions Board to enquire as to whether the applicant's parents are still alive and whether they were alive at the time of the death of the deceased. Has the applicant, in addition to her eldest brother referred to in your report, any other brothers and sisters, and if so, what are their occupations, and their contributions, if any, to the household at the time of deceased's death ?

Date 10th February 1934

in respect of the death of her brother

Richard Barrett

killed while engaged in military service.

1. What was the nature of the dependency of the applicant?

no dependency

2. Were there any persons other than the applicant dependant on the deceased? If so, state names and addresses and nature of dependency.

See application from Mrs Richard Barrett, Mother of Deceased File 52/APB/328.

The Board having considered this case are of opinion that applicant was not dependant on the deceased & recommend therefore that no award be made.
