a case,
In the month of December 1934) I was called to Dublin to undergo a medical examination in connection with a army pension (I.R.a) This pension I applied for, under the act, in the name of my brother, Tadge Sullivan (deceased) Since that date I have not heard from the Pension. Board either notifying me that my claim had been granted or rejected I was examined by three Doctors in St Brigid's Hospital Dublin & was under exam-

-nation for Period lasting nearly a week. My Health which was poor before December has since become much worse,
I now ask you to review my case and let me know as soon as possible what decision has been come to in the matter of my application

Thanking you in anticipation of a early reply

I am
Yours very sincerely
