I am directed by the Minister for Finance to refer to your minute of the 27th May, 1936, (No. 52/APB/502) relative to the application by Mr. Thomas Lynchehan, Polranny, Achill Sound, Co. Mayo, in respect of his son, the late Mr. Thomas Lynchehan, formerly a member of Óglaigh na h-Éireann.

It is noted that the Army Pensions Board have recommended the award on the grounds that special circumstances exist. The Minister finds himself unable to agree that special circumstances exist in the case, but having regard to the present circumstances of the applicant, he is disposed to admit that some elements of necessity are present in the case and he has, accordingly, been pleased to consent to the grant to him of a gratuity of Seventy-five Pounds.
